

THE LION'S ROAR

June 4, 2009

FROM MR. BALEY: As we move into the summer, I want to make one last plea for prayer. Let me make my plea for prayer using five guidelines for prayer found in Colossians 4:2-4:

1. Continue steadfastly... There is power in persevering (Luke 11:18). Persevering is a test of genuineness.
2. Be watchful... Watch out for wandering minds, vain repetitions, trite or meaningless expressions. Also watch out for prayers that are selfish or too faithless. Stay alert. Be alert to God's guidance in your prayers especially as it relates to your meditation of His Word.
3. Be thankful in your prayers
4. Open the door... Pray that God opens the door of the hearts of all of us. Pray that our hearts will be open to His leading
5. Pray that our school will be full of teachers that make the mysteries of the Truth clear.
